Dream holidays start in Dubai.

Marvel at the architectural splendour of Dubai's skyscrapers, enjoy a show at the Dubai Opera or soak in the rich heritage of the UAE – Dubai is a metropolis with endless opportunities for activities, culture, dining, entertainment and more.

Take a stroll and unwind on Dubai's beaches or skydive over the Palm Islands. In this spectacular and modern city there are plenty of opportunities to keep yourself entertained.

Gold Souk and Dubai Creek

For an authentic taste of old Dubai, an afternoon at the Gold Souk and the Dubai Creek is the perfect way to travel through time and experience the city like never before. Take a ride on the motorised water taxis called 'abras' and you're guaranteed to have a photo album full of breathtaking pictures of Dubai's skyline.

Heritage and Diving Village

If you're looking for a break from the city crowd, step into the Heritage and Diving Village and immerse yourself in the traditions and rich culture of the UAE. Located on the Bur Dubai side of Dubai Creek, it features distinctive palm-and-mud houses and barasti huts where you can watch bygone potters and jewellers practice their craft.

Dubai Mall and Burj Khalifa

The Dubai Mall is a prime destination for shoppers and adventure seekers alike. With a variety of stores and an aquarium with an underwater zoo, visitors can indulge in a day of shopping or experience marine life, all under one roof. Right next door, tourists can enjoy the thrilling view from the observation deck of the renowned Burj Khalifa.

Dubai Parks and Resorts

Get lost in three mega theme parks in one larger-than-life venue. Motiongate™, Bollywood Parks™, and LEGOLAND®, jam-packed with adventure and fun, will keep you entertained. At Dubai Parks and Resorts, there's something for everyone of all ages to enjoy.

Desert Safari

Experience the thrill of driving through the desert before you catch the serenity of sunset over the endless sand dunes. Then travel back in time to the days of the Bedouins with an evening of cultural performances, entertainment, and traditional cuisine, as you soak in the rich heritage that's planted deep within this thriving nation.

The Walk at Jumeirah Beach Residence

A hub for dining, nightlife, outdoor activities, and even street art, The Walk stretches along the coast of the JBR residential area. The countless entertainment options right off The Beach at JBR, make it a popular outdoor destination for any visitor.

Dhow cruise at the Dubai Marina

Step on board a traditional Arabian dhow and experience the best in old meets new as you soak in the panoramic new Dubai skyline. With a sumptuous dinner served on board, the stunning backdrop of the Marina, Burj Al Arab and Atlantis hotel is sure to leave a lasting impression.

Atlantis, The Palm & Aquaventure

Atlantis, The Palm guarantees everything from high-end facilities and suites, to one-of-a-kind aquatic fun at the largest water park in the Middle East. It's sure to deliver an adrenaline rush with its record-breaking rides and attractions.

IMG Worlds of Adventure

Come summer or winter, at the world's largest indoor theme park, the fun never stops. From the spooky haunted hotel to thrilling rides, IMG Worlds of Adventure will have you craving more excitement than you can fit into just one visit.

Explore our destinations.

Turkey

In ancient times, Greeks, Romans, Venetians and Ottomans called Turkey their home, making it a remarkable melting pot of culture, tradition and cuisine that has Istanbul as its centrepiece. The Blue Mosque, Topkapi Palace and Hagia Sophia are just a few of the famous sites to visit in this city that bridges Europe and Asia.

Armenia

Rugged mountains, extinct volcanoes and misty valleys make up Armenia's landscape and give it a natural charm that can only be described as magnificent. The countryside offers beautiful views of medieval monasteries perched on hilltops and the picturesque towns along Lake Sevan are a delight during the summer months. For a more urban vibe you can visit Yerevan, with its wide, tree lined avenues and eclectic street life.

Whether it's the sun-kissed coastlines of Asia that offer a peaceful getaway, or the rugged terrains of Europe that yearn to be explored - we have a destination suitable for you, any time of the year.

Georgia

Rich in history, culture and natural beauty, Georgia truly has it all. Delve deep into the city of Tbilisi and you'll find ancient churches, fortresses and watchtowers amidst lively restaurants and magnificent views. Lush green valleys and vineyards spread all the way until the shores of the Black Sea, with cities like Batumi offering a bustling riviera and pebbled beaches.

Jordan

Ancient ruins, breathtaking views and sandy, rugged terrain as far as the eye can see make Jordan a truly unforgettable holiday destination. Heading away from the capital city of Amman, you come across such marvels as the Dead Sea, Petra and Wadi Rum.

Sri Lanka

Sandy beaches, tea plantations, colourful houses, markets and temples litter this lush green island in the Indian Ocean. Take a tuk-tuk ride through the streets of Colombo, surf the beaches near Galle or venture inland to visit the temples in Kandy and the ancient city of Sigiriya, for a complete Sri Lankan experience.

Tanzania

Tanzania

Home of Africa's highest peak, Mount Kilimanjaro, Tanzania is known for its beautiful sandy beaches, vast savannas and untamed wildlife, perfect for safaris. Its largest city, Dar es Salaam, offers a lively atmosphere with bustling markets selling everything from crafts to street food. Just a few miles offshore, and definitely worth a visit is Zanzibar, an island paradise that has inspired poets and artists alike with its beauty.

Italy

History, food and style are the trademarks of Italy. Roam the streets surrounded by baroque architecture and stop in for some world famous Sicilian cuisine in Catania. If its excitement you're after then hiking on Mount Etna, the world's most active stratovolcano is sure to thrill with close up views of its smoking craters and breathtaking views of this Italian island.

Italy

Bosnia & Herzegovina

Nestled in the heart of the Balkans, this mountainous and forested nation harbors a stunning landscape that serves as a backdrop for ancient castle ruins and architecture that reflects the blend of cultures and traditions of the Bosnian people.

Bosnia & Herzegovina

Azerbaijan

Azerbaijan

Surrounded by the Caspian Sea and sitting between Asia and Europe, Azerbaijan has long been home to many ancient peoples and empires. Baku, its capital city, is the best example of the East meets West, old meets new civilisation, with its ancient fortresses and fabulous modern architecture. Deep in the mountains you can further explore the Land of Fire and its heritage by visiting the many historical sites in the picturesque city of Qabala.

Poland

Poland

An old world charm mixed with a modern energetic vibe, Poland is a country of contrast in its best form. Krakow is a city steeped in history and culture, from its medieval buildings and military museums that tell a tale through time to its lively squares and markets bustling with activity. If exploring is on the cards, step out of the city and discover the lush green landscapes and charming villages of Poland.

Greece

With a history stretching back through time, Greece has long captivated minds and hearts. Visit Thessaloniki and step into a journey through almost every period in time with ruins and dating back to 315BC.
